MUMBAI (Commodity Online): The board of directors of The Bombay Bullion Association Ltd (BBA), appointed Prithviraj Kothari, Managing Director, Riddisiddhi Bullion Ltd, as the president of BBA.

Kothari has succeeded Suresh Hundia of Hundia Exports. Kothari, was elected, unopposed, as its new president by the 15 elected directors of BBA.

BBA is an association of elite bullion merchants / dealers / traders / wholesalers / jewellers, who are renowned in their respective trade.

“Today seeing the growth of the bullion industry, we look forward towards participation in improving the working standards at India’s bullion hub, Zaveri Bazaar, Mumbai,” said Kothari on his election as the incoming President of the India’s largest bullion association.

BBA had conducted the elections for this position in the last week of October, which was attended by 257 members of the association.

The association would also address issues and concerns of the bullion market to the government, especially the varied taxes on bullion products, Kothari added.
